Dedicated to

The 1953 La Entrada is proudly dedicated to Neal E. Wade, superintendent of Chowchilla Union High School. Under the leadership of Mr. Wade for the past three years our school has achieved many new honors. His interest in the academic, social and co-curricular activities of the school has given impetus to our entire student body.

Under Mr. Wade's guidance the scholastic standards of the school have been raised, deserving students have earned scholarships, and the student government has been revised. The highest ideals of skill and sportsmanship have been achieved in all extra-curricular activities.

We, the students of C.U.H.S. are grateful to Mr. Wade for his friendliness and concern for our entire school.

President's Message

We, the class of '53, are concluding four exciting and successful years at Chowchilla Hi. We have learned the value of good team work and co-operation, and we've experienced the excitement of increased knowledge and, above all, we've had fun.

These qualities have been shown in the many activities, school and class, and the two plays. The plays, Seventeenth Summer and Our Hearts Were Young and Gay, were enthusiastically received by the student body and public. Also unusually large groups of our class are active in music, athletics, FFA, FHA, and the student council. The many CSF members and life members have been outstanding in the fields of science, business, homemaking, English, mechanics, agriculture, and mathematics.

We, the members of the class of 1953, will always remember Chowchilli Hi and the fun and friends we've had here.

Houghnhums - The Strong

Highlighting the junior year was the annual play, "Ever Since Eve." This play that characterized the young members of the school paper, was highly appreciated by the public. Another big project of the year was the magazine sales that helped fill the treasury. The climax of the year was the gay, social success, the Senior Ball.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

La Putas - The Scholars

The sophomores are developing their student minds and learning to co-operate with their sponsors and class mates. The experience of their first year has rendered them much wisdom, so it seems, and they are getting more enjoyment from their student life in such activities as the Valentine's Party and the March of Dimes contest. These fetes show the ambition of the Soph class which is to raise more money than has ever been raised before at CUHS. They closed the year by decorating the auditorium for graduation.

FROSH OFFICERS

Monte Pistoressi, Vice-President; Nancy DeVours, Secretary; Judy Caldwell, Treasurer; J. R. Gillaspie, President

DIRECTORS, Patsy Gudgel, James Westfall, Kay Chapman proudly displaying the coveted CUHS banner

Lilliputians - The Small Ones

Perhaps one of the liveliest classes ever to enter CUHS is this year's Freshman group. Their spirit is shown by the turnout at the first parties. This class is also prominent with many members in the Silver Seal Point Program. They are one of the loudest groups ever represented in Chowchilla. This is evident by the noise they make during the yell contest at the rallies.

La Entrada

From the preparation of the first "dummy" to the time when students open their yearbooks, the staff, headed by Holly Phillips, editor, spends many hours doing write-ups, taking pictures, promoting sales, and securing advertisements.

In the process of getting a well balanced annual to press, the co-operation of many different departments is required. Write-ups of the various activities and organizations were assigned to the staff and proofed by the copy editor, Ronald Gillaspay. Pictures were taken under the supervision of the editor and her two assistants, Delores McKissick and Mimi Burcher. Sales were promoted by Gaylinn Spence with the aid of several class salesmen. In order to finance the yearbook by securing ads, Bob Becker filled the position of advertising manager.

Other Staff members were Margaret Blanton, art editor, assisted by Sandra Murray, Elmadale Gudgel, Ted Aird, and James Williams.

Supervising the entire project were the advisors: Mrs. F. Hodgkinson, Miss E. Johnson, Mrs. G. DeVours, and Mr. C. Quick.

The Howler

Some of the busiest students in school comprise the journalism class which published the semi-monthly newspaper, the Howler.

Before the class, which is headed by Mr. W. Peterson, advisor, and Elmadale Gudgel, Editor, can gather and write the news they must first learn the basic principles of writing articles and the mechanics of getting the paper to press. The staff is divided into different fields. These fields include sports, features, editorials, art, and current events.

Heading the various fields are Dellene Smith and Gaylinn Spence, assistant editors; Leo Taylor, sports, and Charlotte Woner, Art. Other members of the staff are Dawn De Vours, Pat McDowell, Virginia Rodman, Freida Garrison, Dee Sinclair, Elsie Cornaggia, Mimi Burcher, Sally Forrest, Barbara Beers, Oretha Williams, Jerry Askew, Wilda McRee, Garland Gentry, and Norma Bland.

The purpose of the IRC is to create friendly relations abroad. This year, however, it concentrated mostly on our side of the ocean. The Christmas party held for the purpose of collecting toys for the needy children of Chowchilla turned out to be a bang-up affair.

Varsity Football

Chowchilla switched from the old single-wing style of attack to a more deceptive split-T formation this year and came through with flying colors. With new coaches, Lloyd Helgeson and Nish Haroian, behind the helm, the Redskins completed the season with only two league defeats.

John Williams for the second year in a row, was voted most valuable player; and Norm Thiel and Ronnie Floyd were chosen team captains.

Coaches

Chowchilla's "Papooses" completed a fair season with a good record. The team displayed fine running behind an aggressive and fast wall. Many of the players will advance to the varsity next year after the experience they received with the J.V.'s. Vinceint Briceno and Duane Bennett were chosen team captains by their team mates.

The CHOWCHILLA DRUG STORE is the popular "hangout" and shopping center of many CUHS students. Tom Bell and Bim Bigler are looking at the latest in kodaks, while Betty Vogelsang, LaVerne Husted and Sue Hancock discuss the complete line of merchandise in the cosmetics department.

Two Chowchilla High future farmers, Steve Fitch and Joe Sutton, who are potential Chowchilla cotton raisers, find out where the cotton seed goes from a large trailer at the SAN JOAQUIN COTTON OIL COMPANY plant.

Two CUHS couples, who enjoy seeing shows every week at the SIERRA THEATRE, are inspecting the new screen which was recently installed to give theatre-goers the latest in up-to-date equipment. Those on the stage are Ronnie Floyd, Charlotte Woner, Lori Volhart, and Larry Anderson.

The comic figure in the Red & White grocery basket tells Shirley Shay and Shirley Sorenson to "stop" and "shop" at RED'S MARKET in that friendly atmosphere. Mr. J. L. Red is waiting on the two CUHS girls.

The saleslady, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, is showing Sandra Murray, Joyce Wisener, and Luetta Kilpatrick one of the many styles of dresses from the Ready-to-Wear Dep't. at the BEN FRANKLIN STORE. This is only one of the many interesting departments throughout the store.

The advantages of the modern lawn mower are being discussed by Floyd Park, CUHS shop instructor, and Floyd Dougherty as Eugene Cline looks on at PERRY'S HARDWARE STORE.

If it's an antique you want, Anzel Owen tells Linda Holley, Kay Finney, and Joann Mariscal, that OWEN'S FURNITURE STORE carries a complete line, including imported China tea sets, as well as all types of furniture.

Heini Wadewitz tells Raymond Merrill his Wilson baseball shoes will stand up under hard use, and Noel Southwick points out the outstanding qualities of Peter's dress shoes to Richard Deeter at WASEMILLER'S, outfitters for CUHS students for seventeen years.
